

Special Topics in Jungian Psychology
Fall 2025

Six classes offered by the C. G. Jung Institute of Colorado

Jungian psychology connects us to the rich and mysterious inner world so often discounted by our culture. This series of classes will explore the overlapping but distinct messages that are embedded in myths and folk tales (aka “fairy tales”.) Myths and folktales are as much pathways to individuation as are our dreams. Edward Edinger notes: “Myths are not simply tales of happenings in the remote past but eternal dramas that are living themselves out repeatedly in our own personal lives and in what we see all around us.” Marie-Louise Von Franz says: “...when we study a fairytale motif we do something like making a comparative anatomy of the human psyche...” We hope you can join us.

Meetings will be on Zoom, Wednesday evenings.
